

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 17, 2019

New Officers at the World PCO Alliance
Noel Mitchell Elected President, Nancy Tan Elected Vice-President and André Viotor Elected Treasurer

Tokyo, Japan: The World PCO Alliance has elected officers for a new term.

The elections were held at the Alliance's Annual General Meeting, which took place during IMEX in Frankfurt, Germany in mid-May. Irish member Noel Mitchell of Keynote PCO is the Alliance's new President, taking over from Gregg Talley of Talley Management Group Inc. Nancy Tan of Singapore-based Ace:Daytons Direct is now Vice-President, and André Viotor of Spain's Bco Congressos will serve as Treasurer. The new officers will serve two-year terms.

“This new role is a true honor,” says Mitchell. “I am excited to follow in the footsteps of Gregg Talley, our Immediate Past-President, and ensure that the Alliance continues serving our impressive roster of members from around the world.”

“The World PCO Alliance is a one-of-a-kind organization,” says Tan, “and I am very privileged to be part of this new leadership.”

Says Viotor, “I look forward to serving as Treasurer under the guidance of Noel and Nancy, and working with all of our esteemed members.”

The Alliance's secretariat will continue to be managed by Congress Corporation, based in Japan.
